

River Hawks projected starting line-up:

4 Chad Holley 5'10" G

Plans to get a degree in management but can he manage to score points tonight?

11 Akeem Williams 5'10" G

Shares a name with a prominent disc golfer, therefore his name means pure athleticism.

23 Kerry Weldon 6'5" F

Calls himself K. Slay, but he probably won't be slaying many baskets tonight.

34 Kennedy Chukwuocha 6'6" F

The River Hawks website has a pronunciation guide for his last name. "chuk-WHOA-cha".

50 James McDonnell 6'7" C

Aspires to play professionally in Europe following graduation.

HC Pat Duquette

Had a number of recruits decommit when he became head coach of the River Hawks.

Good evening, Wolverines! We are kicking off the official start of the season by honoring last year's accomplishment: national runner-up. Yeah, we were pretty good. The Wolverines want to return to the Final Four, and that journey starts tonight.

Darkest before the Dawn: The River Hawks went 15-13 last season in the Division II Northeast 10 conference. They suffered losses to Adelphi and Pace - we haven't heard of them either. Fans are hopeful despite their team's transition to a new coach and move to the Division I America East Conference. With the River Hawks's struggles last season, these changes will be a true test for their team and young coach.

Tough Guys: The River Hawks starting line up took a hit when both Antonio Bivins (#22) and Jahad Thomas (#10) were injured in pick up games. Apparently, they can barely contend with twelve-year-old kids at the park.

One Night with Parris: Parris Massey (#42) also known as "The Pharaoh" has beautiful hair and is an award winning chef. He also writes poetry, paints, and is a musician. He is clearly a catch, but his dream is to serenade the president. Sorry, ladies.

The rest of the River Hawks: Michael Gelineau (#1), Carlos Taylor (#5), Andrew Nene (#13), DJ Mlachnik (#21), Tyler Livingston (#24), and Mark Cornelius (#30).

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

The Second Coming of Burke?: Derrick Walton Jr. clearly has the point guard position in his grasps, playing double Spike Albrecht's minutes in the two exhibition games. Whether Walton can help ease the pain of Wolverine fans after Burke's departure has yet to be determined. He certainly has the moxie, stating postgame after Concordia, "In the battle, I'm always the leader."

A Loaded Arsenal: Michigan boasts an impressive array of three-point weapons this year. Nik Stauskas and Spike Albrecht return to lead the barrage, with fellow sophomore Caris LeVert also proving to be capable from long-range. Don't sleep on freshman wing Zak Irvin either, who displayed his comfort Monday, knocking down three of five from deep.

DON'T FORGET! The next pod for claiming tickets starts: Tuesday, November 12 at 8:30 AM for Coppin State, Houston Baptist, and Arizona.

Cheers: Be steady and DON'T SPEED UP

Offense:

- Here we go Michigan, here we go! (clap clap)
- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"EH"-BOMB: When Nik Stauskas makes a three drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken the Crisler Center and yell "Eh" like you're Canadian

The Bacari Corner

A Tribute to coach Bacari Alexander and his Tweets:
