Good evening Wolverines and welcome back to Crisler! Tonight we take on the Central Michigan Chippewas, who hail from Mount Pleasant. The Wolverines are fresh off an 86-66 season-opening win against the North Florida Ospreys. While we are still unranked in the AP poll, a strong win tonight will make a case for us, so let's make some noise for our fellow Wolverines!

Departed Star: Marcus Keene was Central Michigan's star player last season. At just 5'9", the junior point guard led all of NCAA Division I in scoring, averaging nearly 30 points per game. Keene played his first two seasons for Youngstown State, but was unhappy with the team's offensive philosophy. After a game against Central Michigan where he noticed the Chippewas' up-tempo style, Keene decided to transfer. After last year's success, Keene decided to declare for the NBA Draft. He went undrafted, and now plays for a second-tier professional club in Italy.

B1G Nerves: Last Friday, the Chippewas began their season by defeating the Siena Heights Saints handily, winning 108-44. One might expect such a lopsided defeat to give the team some confidence; however, head coach Keno Davis realizes how big of a challenge the Wolverines will present. "We'll have nerves going in there," Davis said. "We're definitely going to make mistakes." When those mistakes come, we'll make sure to let the Chippewas hear about it!

The Rest of the Chippewas: Gavin Peppers (#0), Corey Redman (#1), A.J. Bullard (#3), Andrew Meyers (#4), Jamarrio Rule (#10), Innocent Nwoko (#11), Adam Kozinski (#13), Matty Smith (#15), Kevin McKay (#20), Matt Beachler (#22), DaRohn Scott (#23), Austin Ervin (#25), John McCarty (#35)

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Wasting no time: Charles Matthews has had a smooth transition to the Wolverines, and it showed against North Florida. The transfer from Kentucky scored 20 points on 9/19 shooting. Matthews also had 4 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 steals, and a block, helping the Wolverines to a 86-66 win.

Veteran Leadership: Duncan Robinson and Moritz Wagner made considerable contributions in the season-opener, scoring 21 and 18 points respectively. The duo also combined for 19 rebounds in the Wolverines' victory over North Florida.

Home-Court Advantage: Last season, the Wolverines went an impressive 15-3 at home. Let's do everything we can to give our Wolverines the best advantage possible at Crisler again this season and continue to be the best student-section in the country!

Cheers and Chants

- Put your arms around those near you and sway to the beat during the pregame video and player introductions
- IbiIbiIbiIbi (when Ibi Watson touches the ball or makes a play)
- Big Jon (when Jon Teske makes a play)
- During free throws, listen for the distracting noise and echo along
- Howl like a wolf when Charles Matthews has a great play
- Defense! (stomp, stomp)
- You Suck chant after a Michigan run causes an opponent timeout

Moe Money, Moe Buckets: Every time Moritz Wagner hits a three, rub your thumb and fingers together as if you were rubbing coins or bills together

D-Bomb: Every time Duncan Robinson hits a three, drop back in your seat as though a bomb has violently shaken Crisler

The Alumni Corner

Wolverines in the Pros: Caris LeVert scored 13 points for the Brooklyn Nets on 5/9 shooting this past Tuesday against the Denver Nuggets. LeVert also added 3 rebounds and 2 assists.

Tweet of the Week: "This is like the first time in 12 years I'm not playing college basketball. Just doesn't feel right lol" – Spike Albrecht (@SpikeAlbrecht), Class of 2016
