

Dolphins projected starting line-up:

2 Qwadere Lovell 6'0" G

The leading scorer from last season; once had a tumblr account named "lilbabyjesus."

3 Tyquan Rolon 6'3" G

He made 87 three pointers at a 47% clip last season at Mohawk Valley Community College.

13 Tanner Hyland 6'2" G

His older brother Keegan briefly played at Gonzaga before transferring to Division II Bentley University.

31 Daniel Kaigler 6'6" F

As it is No Shave November, his "rat stash" will be on point all month long.

33 Connor Mahoney 6'5" F

He thought the Michigan-Kansas game was the best game of the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

HC Patrick Beilein

The son of Michigan head coach John Beilein is in his first season as Le Moyne's head coach.

Welcome back to Crisler, Maize Rage! The 2015-16 Michigan basketball season is finally here. While last season left the team with injuries and obstacles, many freshmen were able to be immersed in the game straight off of the bench, and gain valuable experience. Having a well practiced team last year, means a deep roster this year. It will be exciting to see what Team 100 of Michigan Basketball has in store for us this season. Tonight we welcome the Division II Le Moyne Dolphins to Crisler Arena!

Father Knows Best: John Beilein's son Patrick is the head coach of Le Moyne, providing us with a show down that can only be known as "Battle of the Beileins." Patrick played for his father at West Virginia from 2002-2006, where he surpassed 1,000 career points. Then, Patrick was a graduate manager for John Beilein's coaching staff at Michigan from 2008-10. Patrick is following in John's footsteps as Le Moyne's head coach, a position John held from 1983 to 1992.

A Night to Remember: Le Moyne made national headlines in 2009 when they defeated a Syracuse team that went on to go 30-5 and reach the 2010 Sweet Sixteen. Despite winning that exhibition game 82-79, the Dolphins did not have the same kind of success in this year's exhibition against Syracuse, losing 97-58 to the Orange on Monday night.

The Rest of the Dolphins: Nathaniel Henry (#0), Russell Sangster (#1), Panagiotis Zaraidonis (#4), Eriq Jenkins (#5), Chandler Benson (#10), Sam Saxton (#21), Anthony Richards (#22), Stan Buczek (#24), Zach Quattro (#34), Brandon Fischer (#35).

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Daniel Kaigler

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Centennial: The 100th season of Michigan Basketball is here. This tremendous milestone is known as the year of the 10k diamond. Hopefully, that's an indication of the Championship rings the Wolverine team will be bringing home at the end of March. Additionally, news of Coach Beilein's contract extension to the 2020-2021 season is certainly news that rocks!

New Kids on the Block: The Wolverines add two new members this year: Moritz Wagner, coming all the way from Berlin, Germany, and Brent Hibbitts, a walk-on from Hudsonville, Michigan. Be sure to give both guys a big welcome!

Walking Wounded No Longer: Michigan looks to be at full strength after last year's injury-laden season. Caris, Derrick, and D.J. are all back after season-ending injuries last year, while Zak and Spike are looking to come back even stronger after offseason surgeries.

Remember: A maize Michigan shirt, a Michigan basketball jersey, or costume is required to sit in the bleachers.

Cheers: Be steady and DON'T SPEED UP

Offense:

- Here we go Michigan, here we go! (clap clap)
- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
