HC Ron Cottrell

He is in his 25th season as the Huskies' head coach.

Good Afternoon, and welcome back to Crisler Arena! Squad 100 had an eventful Thanksgiving Break. They traded turkeys for tans, in the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament. The Michigan team pulled off an impressive feat, winning three straight against Charlotte, Texas, and N.C. State after falling to UConn in the tournament opener. Now the team is back at home and hosting another team of Huskies, before hitting the road to play SMU. Let's make Crisler loud and keep the winning streak going!

Mush, Pack, Mush!: The Huskies had an early Thanksgiving break, playing their last three games in Mexico for the Cancun Challenge. They were shut out in the first round by TCU, on November 19th. Stephen O'Suji (#13) has the Twitter handle @BrothaSooj. Nic Thomas (#14) was lovin' it when he heard that McDonald's would start serving breakfast all day. William Gates Jr.'s (#25) father played for Marquette.

Rough Transition: The Huskies have met a great deal of success during Coach Cottrell's tenure, but only at lower levels so far. After 10 straight 20-win seasons in the NAIA, Houston Baptist became a Division I school in 2007. Since then, the Huskies have not posted a winning season. Welcome to the big leagues, where there is an actual post season, and the points actually matter.

Rest of the Huskies: Asa Cantwell (#3), Cody Stetler (#4), Trey Patterson (#10), Terry Harris (#12), Reveal Chukwujekwu (#15), Alex Fountain (#23), Kyren Block (#24), Isaiah Robinson (#33), Evan Anderson (#55).

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Caleb Crayton

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Good Work, Team: Senior Spike Albrecht was recognized this week as a nominee for the National Association of Basketball Coaches Allstate Good Works Team, or the NABCAGWT, for short. This award is predicated on service within the community. Spike is a deserving candidate, volunteering at Mott's Children's Hospital, the St. Louis Center, the Army/Navy Wheelchair basketball game, and many other programs. Congrats Spike!

Return of the Sharpshooter: Michigan loves 3-Point aces, and this year Duncan Robinson assumes that position. A transfer from Williams College, Duncan has stepped up in a pivotal role off the bench. Duncan is currently second on the team with 10.4 points per game, while shooting above 60% on 3-Point attempts. He'll look to keep that spark during the upcoming stretch.

Remember: A maize Michigan shirt, a Michigan basketball jersey, or costume is required to sit in the bleachers

Cheers: Be steady and DON'T SPEED UP

Offense:

- Here we go Michigan, here we go! (clap clap)
- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
