

Hawkeyes projected starting line-up:

10 Mike Gesell 6'1" G

4 Roy Devyn Marble 6'6" G

Was named last week's Big Ten Player of the Week and is from Southfield, MI.

Scored 25 points against Michigan as a Freshman in 2011, but only 2 points in last year's meeting.

30 Aaron White 6'9" F

34 Adam Woodbury 7'1" C

Woodbury is the tallest Hawkeye since 7'2" Antonio Ramos, who played in 1999.

HC Fran McCaffery

After an angry outburst against Wisconsin, he was ejected, suspended for 1 game, and fined $10,000.

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Adam Woodbury

Our Wolverines return to Crisler after a huge road win at Wisconsin, preserving our undefeated conference record. There is no time to rest and celebrate as Iowa presents another significant challenge. Let's keep the momentum rolling in conference play by defending home court today! Go Blue!

All Over the Midwest: Hawkeye forward Jarrod Uthoff (#20) originally played for Wisconsin and was believed to be a rising star within the program. Bo Ryan said that Uthoff would play early in his Wisconsin career, but this did not come true. Despite Wisconsin's unwillingness to release his scholarship, Uthoff left for Iowa.

English Baller: Gabriel Olaseni (#0) started his athletic career in England as a soccer player, but he once noticed someone dunking on the basketball goal next to the soccer field. This prompted him to try basketball. Afterwards, he began a huge growth spurt, bringing him up to the 6'10" basketball forward he is today.

Briefly: Peter Jok (#3) is related to Luol Deng, and his brother, Dau, plays basketball for Penn State. Anthony Clemmons (#5) might be a Nebraska fan, listing #teambigred in his Twitter bio. Okey Ukah (#23) is creatively nicknamed "OK." Darius Stokes (#35) is following after his old man, Greg, who also played at Iowa.

The Rest of the Hawkeyes: Gabriel Olaseni (#0), Josh Oglesby (#2), Kyle Denning (#13), Zach McCabe (#15), Kyle Meyer (#42)

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Strength of Schedule: #10 Iowa is Michigan's 4th game this season against an AP top 10 team at game time. There are three Big Ten teams left in the top 10. After Saturday at #3 Michigan State, we will have faced all three in a row. It's good to have this one at home.

Update: It appears that Kate Upton and Justin Verlander are back together. Sorry Spike, keep dreaming.

Picking Up the Workload: Since Mitch McGary went down with a season-ending back injury, Jordan Morgan has certainly picked up the slack. Morgan went from 9.4 minutes per game to 20.4. Morgan's points per game has gone from 2.6 to 7.7 and rebounds per game has gone from 2.6 to 4.9.

DON'T FORGET! Offers for the Michigan State game will be made on Monday, February 10. Offers will be based on prior attendance through the Nebraska game on February 5.

- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"EH"-BOMB: When Nik Stauskas makes a three drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken the Crisler Center and yell "Eh" like you're Canadian
