

Chargers projected starting line-up:

3 Cody Smith 5'10" G

His twitter handle is @gbeatz_3. Apparently @gbeatz3 was already taken.

5 Darius Ware 6'3" G

He only has two connections on LinkedIn.

15 Rhett Smith 6'7" F

He is a frequent Yak-er on Yik Yak. It would seem that subtweeting isn't enough for him.

24 Kyle Cooper 6'7" F

He is the leading scorer for the Chargers and a volunteer at soup kitchens. He's "Good Guy Kyle".

50 Jason Pretzer 7'1" C

He managed to complete the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge without getting any water on his head.

HC John Tharp

He was inducted into Lawrence University Athletic Hall of Fame. Yes, that's a thing.

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Kyle Cooper

Welcome to Crisler for weekend basketball fun! Today the Wolverines will take on the Chargers of Hillsdale. Hillsdale's Board of Trustees member and Wheel of Fortune host, Pat Sajak, walked off of the set in a fit of frustration during the show this week. After today's game, the Chargers will be walking off of the court with the same feelings as Sajak. Go Blue!

Points on Points on Points: Hillsdale will have trouble replacing Tim Dezelski who recently graduated. He is the only player in NCAA Division II history to compile 600 points, 250 rebounds and 100 assists. Good luck replacing that talent!

Carrying the Torch: Twin brothers Christos (#34) and Steve Giannakopoulos (#52) hail from Athens, Greece. Coach Tharp has raved about how both players are first-rate shooters. The real reason why Coach Tharp says they are both first rate shooters? He actually can't tell which brother is Christos and which brother is Steve. Nice try, Coach.

Briefly: Assistant Coach, Brain McCauley goes by the nickname of "Pistol Pete". He either really likes Westerns and cowboys, or he just likes the shooters on his team. Gordon Behr (#42), shares his last name with a brand of paint. He is a human version of a basketball pun.

The Rest of the Chargers: Nick Archer (#45), Jack Cordes (#40), Nick Czarnowski (#33), Michael Furlong (#25), Lucas Grose (#21), Garrett Jones (#32), Stedman Lowry (#23), Zach Miller (#11), Nate Neveau (#4), Ian Sheldon (#31), and Jonathan Wilkinson (#12).

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

We are the Champions: Today is the day we've all been waiting for: the raising the 2014 Big Ten Championship banner. The Wolverines were outright champions last season. This is the first time the Michigan Basketball team has been outright champions since 1986. You better get your camera ready!

That's Hatch-tastic: In this season's exhibition opener against Wayne State on Monday, Austin Hatch played and scored for the first time as a Michigan Wolverine. His entrance into the game created an electric environment in Crisler. This was a moment that will not be forgotten by the Wolverine family.

DON'T FORGET! There is a game Monday, November 17th at 8pm against Bucknell. Don't worry, you will be back at Crisler in no time!

Cheers: Be steady and DON'T SPEED UP

Offense:

- Here we go Michigan, here we go! (clap clap)
- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
