Welcome back to Crisler Arena! This is the special edition of The Rage Page known as the Jort Report, in honor of Tonight's Jort Out. Our Wolverines are taking on the Iowa Hawkeyes, after an overtime road loss to Michigan State on Sunday. Iowa comes in riding a three game losing streak. With an experienced and deep line-up, the Hawkeyes might be capable of breaking that streak. Both teams are playing with the NCAA tournament on the line. Let's be loud, be proud, and send those birds back to the fields!

Fran Fran the Dancing Man: In the Infiniti Coaches Challenge commercial, Coach Fran McCaffery can be seen entering a charity dance off against Iowa State's break dancing coach. Fran pulls a Magic Mike move as he rips off his break away pants to show some serious thigh in his yellow and black short shorts. He left his jorts at home because they limit his flexibility. In similar news, John Beilein is currently in fourth place in the Infiniti Coaches Challenge.

Briefly: Trey Dickerson (#11) tweeted "But whatever Katy Perry let me know when you are ready" followed by the bride emoji and the ring emoji, only to tweet later that day "you only feel single at night". I guess every February he doesn't have a valentine, valentine. Gabriel Olaseni (#0) Likes To Capitalize Every Word Of Every Tweet Which Is Funny Because He Is An English/Journalism Major.

The Rest of the Hawkeyes: Anthony Clemmons (#5), Kyle Denning (#13), Brady Ellingson (#24), Mike Gesell (#10), Charlie Rose (#1), Nicholas Baer (#51) and Dominique Uhl (#25), Okey Ukah (#23).

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Jarrod Uthoff

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Rahk to the Occasion: With injuries to LeVert and Walton, some big shoes were in need of filling. In the last few games, Muhammad-Ali Abdur-Rahkman has stepped up to the challenge. MAAR scored 23 points in the first 19 games of the season, but has totaled 36 points in his last three, highlighted by Sunday's 18-point performance in East Lansing. He also shot over 50% from the field in each game during that stretch.

Injury Update: Derrick Walton Jr. continues to be hampered by his foot, having missed the last two games against Nebraska and Michigan State. Following Sunday's game, Beilein said, "We don't anticipate him back for awhile. We don't have a date, but it won't be for the foreseeable future." Let's all hope for a full and speedy recovery going forward.

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
