Good evening, Wolverines! Today we face Bucknell. Bucknell is coming off a 16-14 season in which they defeated nobody notable. They have lost their leading scorer from a year ago, Cameron Ayers, along with two other starters to graduation. Despite their loss, this year's roster features seven upperclassmen. The Bison are looking to add on to their sixth NCAA tourney births (in which they boast a 2-5 record) this year. Their claim to fame is defeating three-seeded Kansas in 2006 for their first NCAA tournament win in program history.

The Flying Bison: Bucknell's campus has a late night food truck that is appropriately named "The Flying Bison." It serves students across campus and they can use their version of blue bucks in exchange for snacks. Despite common belief, it does not serve Bison because that would be conceptually cannibalistic.

Briefly: True freshman, JC Show (#12) also known as @JokerCat12, prefers his birth name, John Curtis. D.J. (David Jess) Macleay (#0), however, prefers being called D.J. for obvious reasons. Senior guard Joshua Singleton (#1), was a high school valedictorian who is finishing his philosophy degree. He can use his degree to ponder his shooting percentage. Head Coach Dave Paulsen is entering his seventh season at Bucknell. He coached at U-M as a graduate assistant under Steve Fisher for a season. Remember, the plural form of bison is bison.

The Rest of the Bison: Stephen Brown (#2), John Azzinaro (#5), Zach Thomas (#23), Matt Banas (#25), Ryan Frazier (#32), Ben Oberfeld (#44).

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Know Your Wolverines: We have many new players on our roster. New players mean a new line up! Our projected line up for tonight is Derrick Walton Jr.(#10), Caris LeVert(#23), Zak Irvin(#21), Kameron Chatman(#3), and Mark Donnal(#34). Go bue!

Crammed Crisler: In our last game against Hillsdale, we saw our lovely championship banner being added to Crisler Arena. That wasn't the only addition. Many people were added as well. The game was sold out! It is nice to see Wolverines come out to celebrate a major accomplishment of the Michigan basketball team! That is the Wolverine way!

DON'T FORGET! We are so lucky to be returning to Crisler in three days, as the Wolverines play Detroit on Thursday November 20th at 6pm.

- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
