Good afternoon, and welcome back to Crisler Arena after an enjoyable spring break! Today, the Wolverines take on the Scarlet Knights of Rutgers. The Wolverines beat the team that wears scarlet and gray on Sunday February 22nd. Hopefully, that is a set trend here at Crisler. Let's enjoy our last home game, by cheering loudly, and giving the Wolverine team the energy and support they need going into the Big Ten Tournament. It's time to break the Scarlet Knight's lance in this afternoon's joust!

A Knight's Tale: Rutgers has lost their last 13 games. Their last win came against #4 Wisconsin at home, confusing the minds of basketball fans everywhere. Rutgers has only won two conference games, and is in last place in the Big Ten. They are 341st in the NCAA in PPG. They had a bleak start in their debut season in the B1G.

Oh The Places You'll Go: Rutgers head coach Eddie Jordan has an extensive NBA history, both playing in the league for seven years and coaching in it for twenty. He was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers and went on to play for three other NBA teams. He has been a head coach or assistant coach for five NBA teams. He never has never stayed at a coaching position for long, and does not have a college degree. Rutgers not only has a traveling coach, but traveling players. The team has four players from outside of the United States. The players include Ibrahima Diallo(#32) from Senegal, Malick Kone(#0) from Guinea, Junior Etou(#10) from Congo, and Shaquille Doorson(#40) from Netherlands.

The Rest of the Scarlet Knights: Nkereuwem Okoro (#3), Mike Williams (#5), Ryan Johnson (#13), Jake Dadika (#15), Stephen Zurich (#21), D.J. Foreman (#22), Jalen Hyde (#23), Justin Goode (#31), Khalil Batie (#33).

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Myles Mack

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Moose Tracks: This year, the Wolverines will be honoring one senior on Senior Day: Max "Moose" Beilfeldt. We will remember Max as a tough and gritty player who always did what it took to win. We will also remember him by his calves that no one could handle. Thanks, 44. Good luck and forever GO BLUE!

Glass Half Full: Despite the road game loss against the Northwestern Wildcats in double overtime on Tuesday, the Wolverine team had two players with personal records. Zak Irvin played 49 of 50 minutes with career high 28 points. Zak additionally had 11 rebounds and three assists. Aubrey Dawkins had a career high of 21 points, with 15 of the points coming from the first half.

Remember: A maize Michigan shirt, a Michigan basketball jersey, or costume is required to sit in the bleachers.

Cheers: Be steady and DON'T SPEED UP

Offense:

- Here we go Michigan, here we go! (clap clap)
- Let's Go Michigan! (clap, clap, clap clap)
- Go, Blue, Go! (clap clap clap)
- Let's Go Blue! (clap)
- Go Blue! (clap clap)

Defense:

- Popcorn (Jump up and down while screaming OHHHHH!!)
- Bounce! Bounce! Pass! (Yell "bounce" when the opposition dribbles, and "pass" when they pass)

"A"-BOMB: When Spike Albrecht hits a three, drop back in your seats as if a bomb has violently shaken Crisler Arena.
