Welcome back, Ragers! It's been a long two weeks since our last home game. During our Thanksgiving break, the Wolverines were crowned champions in the Bahamas for the annual "Battle 4 Atlantis", winning games against perennial powers and top ten teams, North Carolina and Gonzaga. Although dropping the first game of the Howard era Tuesday night in Louisville, the Wolverines are still in the top 5 and look to start the conference season on the right foot.

The Lamest of the Avengers: The Hawkeyes travel into Crisler Center with a 6-2 record and a win for the Big Ten in the B1G/ACC Challenge over Syracuse. Although dropping two games to unranked opponents in this early season, Iowa also owns an impressive win over 12th ranked Texas Tech on Thanksgiving in the Las Vegas Invitational. The strongest facet of their victory was shooting 40.1% from the three point line.

Looking for Revenge: These two only met one time before the postseason last year and that was in Carver Arena in Iowa City. That game resulted in U of M's second loss of the season with a handily 74-59 win and a storming of the court. When it counted, Michigan spoiled Iowa's B1G Tournament Championship hopes in Chicago mid-March with a 74-53 victory, moving UM to the semifinal round the next day.

Respecting Our Elders: Two players for the Hawkeyes seem to have been around since the ice age; Luka Garza and Jordan Bohannon. Points and rebounds leader, Luka Garza, 6'11, 260 pound Center, returns for yet another matchup against Jon Teske. He averages a double-double per game. On the other end, Bohannon adores the three point shot, leading the team in attempts and has a 34.8% spot in the column.

Rest of the Hawkeyes: Austin Ash (#13), Michael Baer (#0), Bakari Evelyn (#4), Nicolas Hobbs (#24), Ryan Kriener (#15), Patrick McCaffery (#22), Jack Nunge (#2), Cordell Pemsil (#35), Riley Till (#20), Joe Toussaint (#1), Aidan Vanderloo (#51)

To comply with the Big Ten sportsmanship code, the "Bum of the Game" has been replaced by the "Player to Watch": Jordan Bohannon

Keep it classy, Rage: As one of college basketball's premiere student sections, it's important that we refrain from swearing or using other slurs throughout the game. The University of Michigan is an institution of class, and as a collective representative, we need to uphold this standard.

The Rage Page is produced by the Maize Rage, an independent student group, for University of Michigan students only. It is funded by the Michigan Student Assembly and does not reflect the views of the Michigan Athletic Department or the University of Michigan.

Balled in the Bahamas: The Wolverines had an incredible run during Feast Week, toppling Iowa State, North Carolina, and Gonzaga and adding another trophy to the collection. In the three games the Wolverines played, UM made 33 of its 70 three-point attempts; their opponents made just 32 of their 69 dunk and layup attempts.

Meteoric Rise: After dominating two top-10 opponents in UNC and the Zags, the Wolverines made the largest jump in the history of the basketball AP Poll. From receiving a paltry 12 votes a week ago, Michigan surged to #4 in the nation and received 9 first-place votes.

Dealt a Bad Hand: The Cards of Louisville absolutely stymied the Michigan offense Tuesday, limiting the Wolverines to a 25.9% FG clip and only 3 threes. Teske led the way with 18 points and 10 rebounds, while Xavier was held to a season-low 3 assists and Isaiah shot 1-9 from the floor. The Cards' packline defense and hedging hard on ball screens proved to be an effective antidote to a potent Michigan offense.

NEXT HOME GAME THEME: X-MAS X-TRAVAGANZA! Next Saturday 12/14 against Oregon will be a Christmas themed game, so bring out your ugly sweaters and santa hats as we celebrate the holiday season and pay homage to our beloved point guard!

Remember: A maize Michigan shirt, a Michigan basketball jersey, or costume is required to sit in the bleachers.
